

STIRRING THEM UP

REVIVED SOLDIER PUBLICATION GOING AFTER OFFICERS WHO PERMITTED ABUSES

Some of the Glendale service men have received copies of the resurrected "Stars and Stripes," which was published every week during the war after the American forces got to France, until about August 1st of this year. It was absolutely unique in journalism, in that it was published with the avowed intention of making no profit. It was an eight page newspaper with illustrations and cartoons and carried a great deal of advertising. Asked why they accepted ads when they had resolved to make no money they replied that a paper was much more readable and therefore valuable with than without ads and that subscribers were just as eager to read ads as news. But they remained true to their resolve so whenever their surplus accumulated to a certain sum it was sent to a school for orphaned French children. When they finally ceased publication they had $85,000 on hand and this is now in the hands of a committee for distribution. The new Stars and Stripes is in magazine form. Now that the censorship is removed and the editors are private citizens they are shedding light on the abuses to which some of the men were subjected at prison farms and elsewhere, and demanding that the higher-up officers, majors, colonels and generals, be punished instead of laying it all on the captains and sergeants.

ELKS' LODGE ORCHESTRA

The orchestra of the Glendale Elks' Lodge is now meeting every Thursday evening for practice. At the present time it is made up of players as follows: R. E. Olin, violin; H. H. Parker, flute; Ed Kerri, cornet; I. S. Brown, trombone; Earl Naudain and Wilmot McIntyre, clarinet; Roy Flint, drum; Morris Carruthers, cello; Herbert Henning, piano. There is considerable musical talent in the big and growing membership of the lodge and it is receiving an urgent invitation to enroll with the orchestra.

BOWLING CONTEST

ENJOYED TOUR

MR. AND MRS. GLENN PORTER HAVE PLEASANT SUMMER BUT ARE GLAD TO GET HOME

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn B. Porter have returned from their auto trip to Aledo, Illinois, and with them came Mrs. Porter's mother and brother—Mrs. Van Meter and Clair Staley. The two guests traveled by rail from Aledo to Salt Lake City where they joined the Porters and after they had completed their sight-seeing in the Mormon city mother and daughter came on by train to Glendale, reaching here about five days ahead of Messrs. Porter and Staley who were passengers in the reliable Ford.

Mr. Porter says the overland journey going and coming was comparatively uneventful with no bad luck unless one could count as such the nine miles of mud on the way east, part of which was in New Mexico and part in Kansas, or the sixty miles of mud they rode through on the homeward drive between Omaha and Lincoln.

Their objective, Aledo, in western Illinois, is near Rock Island. The crops there and across the river in Iowa were excellent. Kansas, which

WHY AWARD TO OUTSIDE ARCHITECTS

Why should an outside firm be named as the architects to oversee the construction of the new school building soon to be erected in Glendale is a question that is being frequently asked by Glendale citizens, when there were competent local architects competing for the award?

RESIDENCE CHANGES

Mr. and Mrs. H. Reeve Darling, who have been testing out Glendale as a place of residence and who have been occupying property at 420 Stocker street, have decided they wish to make their permanent home here and have purchased the very attractive home of Mr. and Mrs. Morris Cook, at 1519 South Brand boulevard on the corner of Eulalia. They will secure possession of it some time in October and Mrs. Darling is very much delighted with the house and with its surroundings. In anticipation of going east when the school year closes, Mrs. Cook has been looking around for a smaller house in which to live until that time and a place where she can store her household effects. Not finding what she wanted for rent, she has bought the property owned by Dr. H. E. Sharp at 219 West Eulalia.

TREATMENT OF STEEL INDUSTRY EMPLOYEES

JUDGE GARY SAYS IT PAYS HIGHER WAGES WITH MORE CONSIDERATION TO EMPLOYEES THAN ANY OTHER

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
WASHINGTON, October 1.—Judge Gary, head of the United States Steel Corporation, testifying before the Senate Labor Committee's steel strike hearing, today declared that the charges that the steel corporation mistreated its employees are without the vestige of truth. He said that no industry in the world pays higher wages than the steel industry or treats its men with greater consideration. Judge Gary offered to furnish figures to prove his statements.

LABOR WAR THREATENS ENGLAND

IF TRANSPORTATION WORKERS JOIN STRIKE A GENERAL WAR WITH THE GOVERNMENT WILL BE ON

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
LONDON, October 1.—Not since the early days of the war has England awaited a national verdict with such anxiety as she today awaits the verdict of the transportation workers' federation as to whether they will join the railway strike. If they do join, it will make the strike a general war between the government and organized labor. Crowds waited throughout the day around the hall where the union leaders were meeting, some hissing, some cheering, according to the side with which they sympathized. Over 400,000 workers are represented at the meeting including engineers, painters, electricians, railway clerks and ship builders. Early statements from union leaders seem to indicate that the decision will be in favor of striking.

SHIPYARD STRIKE CALLED AT MIDNIGHT

ITS EFFECTIVENESS CANNOT BE ESTABLISHED OWING TO CONFLICTING REPORTS

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
SAN FRANCISCO, October 1.—The coast-wide shipyard strike situation was indefinite throughout this morning. The strike was effective at midnight but the extent of its effectiveness cannot be established owing to conflicting reports. The unions claim that 50,000 men struck in the San Francisco district while the Portland, Seattle and Tacoma yards are closed. The companies issued no statement.

LOS ANGELES, October 1.—The shipyard strike situation here was foggy today with the companies making no official statements and the union headquarters declaring that both the Southwest shipyards and the Craig yards at Long Beach were completely tied up. However there were at least some men reporting for work this morning, but how many could not be established. Union leaders predicted an early settlement.

CLOUDY AND WARM AT CINCINNATI

LIGHT RAINS PREDICTED FOR OPENING DAY OF WORLD SERIES BALL GAMES

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
CINCINNATI, Ohio, October 1.—An overcast sky but warm weather marked the early hours of the opening day of the World's Series, but the official weather forecast predicted clouds with dashes of rain. The city continues base ball mad with all hotels crowded.

PRESIDENT WILSON "SOMEWHAT JADED"

HAS RESTLESS NIGHT BUT ADMIRAL GRAYSON SAYS "IT MUST NOT BE REGARDED AS A RELAPSE"

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
WASHINGTON, Oct. 1.—Admiral Grayson issued a statement today declaring: "The president had a restless night and consequently is feeling somewhat jaded." He added that this must not be regarded as a relapse.

"MUST STOP SOAP-BUBBLE BLOWING"

SO DECLARES SPEAKER AT CHICAGO MANUFACTURERS' CONVENTION REFERRING TO LABOR AND CAPITAL

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
CHICAGO, Oct. 1.—Sherman Collyer, addressing the National Association of Specialty Manufacturers today, declared: "Labor and its offspring, Capital, must stop blowing bubbles." He added: "When labor shirks its duty, capital exacts a fictitious toll." He declared it would be a great step towards reducing the cost of living to abolish excess profits taxes which lead to the so-called class system which he condemned as a vicious plan.

ALL QUIET AT OMAHA

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)

OMAHA, Nebr., Oct. 1.—The city passed a quiet night with no recurrence of rioting and all was quiet today.

FEDERATION FUNCTION

MEMBERS OF PARENT-TEACHER ASSOCIATIONS ENJOY SUBSCRIPTION CARD PARTY

About seventy-two ladies responded to the subscription five-hundred party given Tuesday afternoon at the charming and hospitable home of Mrs. John Robert White, who is always generously ready to tender its use for any cause in which her interest is enlisted.

On this occasion the treasury of the Parent-Teacher Federation was the beneficiary and the money realized will doubtless swell the scholarship fund maintained to quietly aid students who need help in making their way through school. There are many demands upon the organization because there are always children to be fed, clothed and helped in other ways and school needs to be met for which the school budget has made no provision. It is work which belongs to no particular clique or class and the benefits are all reaped by the community. Mrs. White is the financial secretary of the Federation and as no office is ever honorary when filled by her she can be depended upon to live up to her responsibilities so far as the raising of funds is concerned. As hostess and chairman she had charge of all the party arrangements but was assisted by a committee made up of the chairmen of finance of the various associations enrolled in the Federation.

Red dahlias were used in decoration of the rooms in which the card tables were placed and tea and cake were served at the close of the play, when the prizes were bestowed upon the winners. To Mrs. R. A. Puffer went the trophy for the highest progressive score, a pretty framed print. The pivot prize—a dainty water color by Mrs. Fraser, was won by Mrs. L. P. Abell, the consolation offering, another framed print, going to Mrs. R. C. Horner.

LA CANADA WELCOMES RAIN

Reports from residents of La Canada indicate that the rainfall there Monday night for a short period was very heavy, but that its cessation prevented any destructive washing. They say it will do the citrus and other orchards in that district a great deal of good, also improve conditions for tomatoes. Wine grapes will not be seriously damaged even though cracked to some extent. The heaviest loss will fall on table grapes which are low enough to touch the ground and which will be liable to mould and rot. Speaking of the rainfall they say that because of the exhaustion of moisture supplies in the soil even where double the normal amount of irrigation water was used it did not have the effect that normal irrigation does in ordinary seasons. The rain was therefore very beneficial to orchards which were greatly in need of the downpour.

SERVICE MEN MEET

PERSHING CAMP, LEAGUE OF AMERICAN DEFENDERS, TO AFFILIATE WITH AM. LEGION

Pershing Camp, League of American Defenders met Tuesday evening in the council chamber to take in new members and to decide whether or no to affiliate with the American Legion. Camp Commander J. F. McBryde called the members to order and regular business was first transacted. On motion, it was decided to hold the next meeting on Tuesday evening, Oct. 7th, in the old Masonic Hall, over the Bank of Glendale and a committee consisting of Capt. Dru Nicoles, Prof. R. D. White and Dana Burkett was appointed to endeavor to secure this hall as a regular meeting place.

It was decided to make a drive for $1000, with which to equip the new hall, buy regalia and meet other expenses that come up. Some of the good ladies of the city will be asked to donate pieces of furniture to make the hall home like and comfortable. Messrs. J. F. McBryde, Dru Nicoles and Dwight Stephenson were appointed as a committee to plan for and engineer this drive.

It was also moved and carried that a dance be given soon in Masonic Temple. The committee to arrange for this is Messrs. R. C. Plume, Jesse Flowers, M. B. Kelly, Dru Nicoles and Dr. H. V. Brown.

It was ordered that Col. Mathieson, state head of the American Legion, be written to for necessary papers for organizing the camp as a Post of the American Legion, which every service man of the Lower San Fernando Valley be urged to join.

Frank E. Doherty, an organizer for the American Legion in which Col. Theodore Roosevelt is a prominent member, is a promoter.

YOUNG PEOPLE FEAST

PLANS AND PURPOSE OF EVANGELISTIC CAMPAIGN FULLY SET FORTH

The basement of the First M. E. Church presented an animated appearance Tuesday evening with six long tables occupying the center of the big room, the large orchestra composed of young people of the different churches seated on the rostrum and young folk nearly filling the otherwise unoccupied spaces. There was a slight sprinkling of older people, who came to lend their hearty approval to the campaign that was to be explained by speakers present. After partaking of a bountiful meal prepared by the good ladies of the church and served by lively younger members, J. A. Newton, in charge of the local executive committee, briefly explained the purpose of the gathering and introduced as toastmaster Harold Cross, County President of Christian Endeavor, who at once put everyone in a jolly mood by his humorous greeting and engaging manner. He explained that Glendale's campaign was the first of the 17 to be held in Los Angeles county to make a start and that all the rest of the districts were looking to Glendale and Eagle Rock to set the pace. The young people of all the Protestant churches of the two cities named are taking part in the campaign. Mr. Cross introduced as the first speaker Ross Jennings, President of the Epworth League in Southern California, who brought greetings from Leaguers to the young people of Glendale District and bade them Godspeed in the campaign. He briefly set forth the great task before the Christian people of the nation, that of Americanization, so that those who came here from foreign lands might be taught at once the principles of true democracy and become loyal Christian citizens. The toastmaster next asked all who were familiar with the new song, "Give Your Heart to Jesus, He Is Calling You" to hold up their hands. There was a liberal response, so he asked that it be sung and it was done with a spirit that made the room ring with melody.

The next speaker was introduced as Harry Gobrey, Past State President of Christian Endeavor, who, after answering in kind the humorous allusions of the toastmaster, spoke in serious vein on the problems before the young people in their evangelistic campaign and how they ought to be accomplished. He said the important thing was to get in on the first night and stay with the work until the lights went out at the close of the last service. He stressed the importance of prayer in an enterprise of this kind. No evangelist ever succeeded in holding a big meeting unless backed up by the prayers of young as well as old. The boys who came back from overseas ought to be the special concern of the

BUYING IN NEW YORK

JOHN ROBERT WHITE FINDS ADVANCING MARKET AND PURCHASING DIFFICULT

Mrs. John Robert White, Jr., received a night letter from her husband Tuesday morning advising her that he will be detained in New York—where he has gone to buy stock—about ten days longer than he planned. He says within the past four days per cent prices have been advanced 35 per cent, that prices are close and buying difficult. It is attributed to the increased cost of manufacture because of the wage demands of the weavers. Some of the factories have said they may have to shut down.

STILL PLENTY OF PEACHES

Those who imagine that the peaches are nearly all gone are mightily mistaken. To be sure, the bulk of the canning fruit has been disposed of but the Salways are just coming in, the Susquehannas are at their best, a variety of the white peach, with a very small seed and a delicious flavor, is also ready for picking, while the Heath clings will be fully ripe next week. Monday evening's heavy rain knocked many peaches off the trees, causing considerable loss.

TOPICS OF THE DAY

Prosperity booms on every hand, Glendale the fairest in the land; North, East, South and West, Public facilities of the best.

Houses for rent there are none, From the frost bitten East the people come, Building their own to settle down, To Glendale the climate of renown.

A city park was once the theme, But war and strikes upset the scheme, With telephones all "municipal," The plans all went into a pickle.

Water the most important thing of all, The Trustees did a meeting call, To tell the people how we stand And meet the city's increased demand.

Singers we have in goodly number, Movie actors that make you wonder How they film the blessed thing, They all ought to join the Community Sing.

Churches also for every creed, Libraries with the best of books to read, Schools that graduate all classes, And educate Glendale's lads and lasses.

A fire department that none excel, Glendale's heart with joy doth swell, Also police for our protection, Puts on everything a safe complexion.

Our taxes are so very light, The stores the H. C. L. do fight, Our own gas, electricity and water, With low prices our city tries to slaughter.

Masonic lodges, Elks and others, Just meet and act all like big brothers, O. E. S., the P. E. O. and P. T. A., All happy and bright in their sunny way.

Good streets well lighted for auto rides, The Buick, the Nash and a Ford besides, You can purchase any make you want, An Overlander a Studebaker.

United we stand, divided we fall, The League of Nations is good for all, In the land of the Red, White and Blue, For them, for us, for me, for you.

Some day we shall have a Federal building, A postmaster with civil service standing, Not controlled as a branch of L. A., When long waits at window will pass away.

Seats will be provided for the weary, To help old folks to be happy and cheery, Up and down town along the strand, Both sides of Broadway and all along Brand.

Moonlight nights as light as day, With everyone all jolly and gay, A band of music playing popular airs, Begone dull day, begone dull cares.

A market square with a tower clock, Where country folk can sell their stock, And other folk their produce sell, From mountain, dale and dell.

A Broadway to Griffith Park, Without a high priced jitney shark, So Glendale parents their folk could take, A happy picnic party would make.

We would then be like good sisters and brothers, Everybody happy, both fathers and mothers, In this God's country of the west, With health and prosperity blest.

F. BOOTH,
318 E. Broadway, Glendale, Cal.

nent officer, was here introduced and gave a short address, pointing out the many desirable features of the Legion, which he said was the dominant order for service men in the nation. Its main purposes are to safeguard and promote the interests of all service men whether discharged or still in service and secure them employment if necessary; to teach Americanism and to combat Bolshevism.

Eight new members were taken into the camp. All who join the camp between now and Nov. 8th will be listed as charter members. It is hoped every service man will join.

You Have a Cold

Consequently you hate yourself and are disagreeable and repulsive to all around you. Your head feels like a barrel and what a picture you present, bleary-eyed, red-nosed and stupid.

There is no need of suffering in this way. Some people have the mistaken idea that when they get a cold they must let it "wear itself out." Be careful that it doesn't wear you out or run into something more serious that is not so easily overcome as a cold.

As soon as you feel this disagreeable condition coming on begin at once to rid your system of it. We recommend the following treatment for colds and LaGrippe:

Take One R. & E. Cold Tablet

Every three or four hours during the day and one or two tablets just before going to bed. Continue to take one or two tablets upon retiring for four or five nights to get the cold out of the system.

In severe cases, drink a glass or two of hot water or lemonade just before retiring, get into bed and keep covered up. Secure free perspiration if possible.

In treating colds it is very important that the bowels should move freely at least once a day. This preparation moves the bowels gently without griping.

FOR CHILDREN—From 5 to 12 years of age, give from one-half to one tablet, according to age. Owing to the bitter taste when tablets are divided they are not well adapted for children under 5 years of age. In all cases the tablets are to be swallowed whole, not chewed.

YOUNG PEOPLE FEAST

workers in this campaign, he said, for nine out of every ten came back the worse for the experience. Nearly all had the baneful cigarette habit firmly fixed on them and many had been forced to drink the wines of France because water was not to be had. Some had lost their faith in God and man and must be won back from their habit of indifference. To adjust the broken affairs of the world is the task of the young people of today and they should throw themselves heartily into it for "the United States is today the leading force of the world," said the speaker, "and if it is not Christian I shudder for the result. Present a solid front, young people. Get in on the first day with the enthusiasm that carries all before it, work and pray earnestly and you will surely win."

The toastmaster here explained that two speakers who had been expected and who were to tell of the evangelists that Glendale is to have, were unable to be present so he took that task upon himself. Harry von Bruch, the speaker for the series of meetings, was becoming a national figure and was secured for this campaign with the greatest difficulty and only by a complete rearrangement of his dates. He is on fire with earnestness and zeal and will lead the young people forward to a mighty victory. He is an associate and close friend of Paul Rader, whom so many of the young people know of. With him will come his brother, W. E. Van Bruck, a fine cornetist, the latter's wife, who will act as pianist, and the song and chorus leader, Mr. Clark. The big orchestra that has discoursed such sweet music during the dinner would be present to furnish music also.

Ralph Isbel, Vice-President of the Christian Endeavor Union of Los Angeles county, was next introduced by the toastmaster as a boyhood friend who used to roll him around in the dust and otherwise maltreat him. Mr. Isbel replied in kind and his talk was punctuated all through with sallies of wit that kept everybody laughing. He said this campaign was not to be won by young people whose backbones were like a piece of wet spaghetti, but by up-standing, devoted Christian workers. He said further: "I see your local paper here quite frequently and some day during this coming campaign when I open up the Evening News and note that Willie Jones broke his arm yesterday, I want also to read that the young people packed the big tent to the doors last night and had a mighty evangelistic meeting. I want you to have delegations here from Redondo, from Alhambra, from Long Beach and, yes, from Watts, too, but I hope you won't have room for them when they come, for I want you to crowd that tent with your own people."

Henry Malone, our own Henry, who has in the young people tent arrangements, spoke of the need of workers to arrange the seats, look after the furniture in general and to take down the tent at the close. Several volunteered as aids.

Paul C. Brown, whose mother and brother Howard have lived in Glendale for several years and who is known to nearly all of the young people, was next introduced by the toastmaster to talk on the theme, "Your Part." Replying to a side swipe from Ralph Isbel, to the effect that he had recently acquired the degree of D. A. D., he said there was a mighty sweet and satisfying reason for it—a little daughter that had recently come to his home. Then he told of the financial need of the campaign and said Glendale's apportionment was $250, but he hoped they would double that amount. The response was instant and the sum of $400 was soon pledged.

Miss Ethel Preston, District President of Christian Endeavor, was an efficient aid in this work and indeed all through the evening when help was needed. J. A. Newton had his part of the work well in hand and from all indications the campaign will start off with a rush that will carry the young people over the top to a mighty victory.

ENJOYED TOUR

made a brave showing of agricultural prosperity when they first passed through it, had a heat wave which cooked the wheat just before harvest. Instead of yielding the 35 bushels to the acre expected the farmers had to content themselves with a return of fifteen bushels. Corn was a big crop in Illinois and Iowa and the price was necessarily good as there were no old stocks on hand. Oats were comparatively light. Farmers were prosperous and business flourished everywhere. Merchants declared they found it hard to keep stock enough on hand to meet the demands of their trade.

The weather seemed to them "sticky" as compared with the California brand. They noticed the warm nights more than anything else.

In nearly all the western towns they passed through they found auto parks or camping places for the comfort of travelers like themselves, and a hospitable disposition to make things pleasant for them. The middle west was different. There residents pay very little attention to tourists.

Of course their journey was broken by stops to rest and view the sights. On the way east they stopped for three days at Grand Canyon. They also rested at Syracuse and Wichita, Kansas, where they had friends, and at Creston and Osceola, Iowa.

On the return they took in Iowa City and Council Bluffs, Iowa, and Alma, Nebraska. Especially interesting to them was their stop at Abbot, Colorado, to visit a cousin who has taken up a desert claim and is living in a sod house. It seemed to them a dreary country as irrigation is not possible, but there is bunch grass pasturage on which live stock thrives. From there they took the Lincoln Highway up into Wyoming and that part of the trip was a great disappointment. They had expected jagged mountains and picturesque scenery. Instead the peaks were rounded and they were bare of vegetation except along the rivers. A very desolate country it appeared to them with outcroppings of mineral to take the place of plant life.

Six days they gave to Salt Lake City, where they did the usual tourist stunts, visiting the tabernacle, Saltair, etc., and inspecting the Capitol, said to be one of the best and cheapest administration buildings of its sort in the United States.

Mr. Staley is taking some post-graduate work at Glendale High and later may enter upon a course at Throop College of Technology. He declares that the advantages offered students by the High Schools of Southern California are far superior to those provided in towns of similar size in Illinois and that our college entrance requirements are much higher.

The Upland News tells of a girl working in one of the peach canneries up north who earns $15 or more per day, cutting peaches for canning. And she hasn't got up full steam yet for the season, either, she says. Wonderful! But would a man want a girl so efficient as that for a wife, or not? Not that we're looking for another wife, or that the peach girl might be caring whether she ever gets a man or not, if she can earn $15 per diem. But it just struck us that a girl who is so all-fired capable might find it hard to get a mate who could stand her efficiency without it getting on his nerves.

Long Beach is struggling over the question of whether it is worth $1.00 apiece to have dead cats and dogs hauled away by special haulers, or whether the city garbage haulers should perform the last obsequies. The controversy threatens to raise more of a stink than the dead cats and dogs.

The Hanford Daily Sentinel hoots at the postoffice department because it takes 48 hours for the government to deliver mail from Oakdale to Modesto, sixteen miles away. The way it is done is to send it clear up to San Francisco, 200 miles away, and then back again by another route. In this way two railroads get a "haul" at it, and the government red tape system is properly upheld.
